Students learn about grooming and etiquette

By Syaza Nazura Noor Azmi

MANTIN: It has been an annual tradition in Kolej Tuanku Ja'afar (KTJ) here to have an etiquette talk for the Upper Six students during their last term in the college.

And who would be better qualified to give the talk if not KTJ founding member Tunku Dara Tunku Tan Sri Naquiah.

In the two-hour talk, the students were exposed to the correct way of introducing themselves, the proper attire to wear for certain occasions and the proper attitude and responses to dinner invitations, receptions and parties.

Tunku Dara took this opportunity to demonstrate the proper dining etiquette, from eating the appetiser to eating the main course before finishing with the dessert and a cup of tea or coffee.

"It was an enlightening talk as it teaches us the correct way of behaving during formal events. This is very useful, especially since we're going overseas for our studies in a few months," commented Farah Ahmed, a 19-year-old student from Maldives.

The talk was aimed at instilling the proper protocol and code of conduct in students. The talk helped prepare them for the next phase of their lives, pursuing tertiary education at universities.
